

4.02 Code of Conduct Policy

POLICY STATEMENT

We believe informing an inclusive and welcoming environment and workplace by providing experiences that motivate and facilitate personal growth and development for staff and educators. The values that underpin our work ethic include equality, respect, integrity and responsibility.

AIM

Our service aims to establish a common understanding of work place standards expected of all employees of the service. We aim to ensure positive working relationships are formed between all educators and management, promoting dignity and respect by avoiding behaviour which is or may be perceived as harassing, bullying or intimidating. Educators and management will always conduct themselves in an ethical manner and strive to make all interactions positive and compliant in accordance with the service's philosophy.

STANDARDS AND PROCEDURES

The Approved Provider, Nominated Supervisor, educators and staff, volunteers and students will adhere to the Early Childhood Australian Code of Ethics, National Regulations and Quality Standard and Service policies and procedures at all times, promoting positive interactions with the service and the local community.

Respect for people and the service

- Employees and Management are committed to the service philosophy and values, inclusive of best practice in early childhood education and building positive partnership with children, families and staff.
- Effective, open and respectful reciprocal communication and feedback between employees, children, families and management is conveyed
- It is important to treat colleagues, children and families with respect. Bullying or insulting behaviour, including verbal and non-verbal aggression, abusive, threatening or derogatory language or intimidation towards other employees, children, visitors or families is unacceptable and will not be tolerated.
- Employees are committed to valuing and promoting the safety, health and wellbeing of employees, volunteers, children and families.
- Employees are committed to an Equal Opportunity workplace and culture which values the knowledge, experience and professionalism of all employees, team members and managers, and the diverse heritage of our families and children

Expectations of Leaders and Management

In addition to the above responsibilities, leaders and management are expected to:

- Promote a collaborative and interconnected workplace by developing a positive working environment where all employees can contribute to the ongoing continuous improvement of the room and service.
- Promote leadership by working with employees to improve professional development and growth
- Provide ongoing support and feedback to employees
- Model professional behaviour at all times whilst at the Service
- Implement supportive and effective communication systems, consulting employees in appropriate decision making.
- Take appropriate action if a breach of the code of conduct occurs
- Share skills and knowledge with employees
- Give encouragement and constructive feedback to employees, reflecting the value of different professional approaches

Reporting a breach in the code of conduct

- All employees are required by law to undergo a Working with Vulnerable People's Check.]
- If employees become aware of a serious crime committed by another person, they are required to report it to management
- All employees must report possible risk of harm to children or young persons to management.
- Employees will report any concerns they may have about inappropriate actions of any other employee that involves children or young people to management

Managing Conflict in the workplace

- Management will remain objective and impartial when managing conflict in the workplace
- Management have a responsibility to address a possible breach of the code of conduct by any employee as soon as you become aware of the breach.
- Allegations will be investigated and can result in remedial action, or disciplinary action ranging from a caution to dismissal.
- Management will consider all relevant facts and make decisions or take actions fairly, ethically, consistently and with appropriate transparency. If they are uncertain about the appropriateness of a decision or action they will consider:
 - whether the decision or conduct is lawful
 - whether the decision or conduct is consistent with our policies and objectives
 - whether there will be an actual, potential or perceived conflict of interest involving obligations that could influence the business relationship or conflict with business duties

Adhering to service confidentiality

- Unless authorised to do so by legislation, employees must not disclose or use any confidential information without appropriate approval
- All employees are to ensure confidential information must be not accesses by unauthorised people
